Court St. Joseph will be adopting 2 families this year for our Christmas gift giving. One family will be from Hinsdale and the other from Winchester. We usually provide the Christmas meal and gifts and clothes for the children of the families. In addition, we purchase a gift for the adults if we can. We are given money from our treasury. If you wish to donate toward the families, there are envelopes at the back of the church with the CDA label and you may put the donation in the collection basket. If you have any questions, call Judy @ 336-6200. Thank you in advance.

Rv. 5:12

Evangelization Corner: We need to give God time in silence each day, learning to know Him through the Scriptures so we can distinguish His voice from all the voices and noises and distractions that the world offers. The Holy Spirit genuinely wants to lead us and guide us into the fullness of truth—into the fullness of a relationship with Him. All good things take time. Are you giving Him that time?" - Sister Ann Shields, S.G.L.

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service

The Keene Interfaith Clergy Association is sponsoring the annual Community Thanksgiving Service at the Unitarian Universalist Church on Washington Street in Keene this year. The service begins at 7pm on Tuesday, November 22 and all are encouraged to attend.

Reverend Mark Jenkins of St. James Episcopal Church is the homilist at this year's service. Colby Baker will lead the congregational singing and musicians from various Keene churches will provide additional music: The Voices of the Holy Spirit from the Catholic community; the Seventh Day Adventist Youth Orchestra; and the UCC Ringers on the Square.

The Keene Interfaith Clergy Association asks that those who attend contribute to our monetary collection to benefit the Manna Fund, which assists the economically challenged, the poor, and the disadvantaged. They also ask that non-perishable food items and paper products such as paper towels, toilet paper and laundry products be brought to the service. These donations will be distributed to the Community Kitchen, the St. Vincent DePaul Food Pantry, and area homeless shelters. This is a great opportunity for the citizens of Keene to provide for those who need food and support during this season of thanks.

Saint Joseph Regional School has a part-time position open: Administrative Assistant and Bookkeeper (position may be combined or separated). Please call or email Sister Laura Della Santa – 352-2720 or ldellasanta@stjosephkeene.org, if interested.

He offers important suggestions and helpful insights, along with colorful reflections from his own experience as one of eight children. Cost for CDs is $3.00.
